We offer wide open decks, small guest numbers and visits to remote locations. So, if the ocean is calling, let us take you on the sailing adventure of a lifetime.

“The Tradewind Voyages team are very proud of our majestic ship and the fabulous experience she will deliver. We are thrilled to invite you to join us on one of our maritime adventures.”

Life Onboard

Stand on the expansive wooden deck and feel the momentum of the ship, enjoying the drama as the wind fills the sails and the rigging strains. Gaze out to the horizon where sunlight catches the rippling waves and relish the excitement that comes with the opportunity to spot dolphins riding the bow wave and leaping playfully from the water.

We would like guests to feel connected to the ocean, so all cabins on board Golden Horizon have a sea view and many have their own private balcony. Start the day with a yoga or fitness class on the Compass Deck, work out in the gym or unwind in the spa with an indulgent treatment. Relax and enjoy a good book and a coffee in the library.

Our marina platform opening at the stern, sitting just above the water, is our gateway to the ocean. A great space to relax, but also the hub for kayaking, paddleboarding, swimming and snorkelling. Borrow one of our sailing dinghies or sea bobs to navigate the clear water and discover quiet bays. During your voyage, enjoy beach days and surprise stops, as well as iced drinks around the ship's swimming pools.

There's time to learn, too. We play host to insightful experts who can teach you about maritime history, astronomy, geography and more, and our outstanding team is on hand to arrange optional activities, from wine tasting to watching a movie under the stars.

Relax as you enjoy dinner in the elegant dining room, listening to our pianist and singer, or head up on deck for a more casual meal watching the sunset. Get a taste of the local region with shows from talented local performers and end perfect days at Debeljak's, our premium on board bar serving some of the world's finest gins and whisky.

Deck By Deck

Upper Deck & Compass Deck

On the Upper Deck you'll find the ship's 3 pools. The main pool, the largest of the 3, is filled with sea water, heated and boasts a glass bottom which looks down into the large atrium at the heart of the ship. Situated just a few feet from the pool bar, it's the perfect destination for an afternoon dip with a cocktail under the sails.

The dive pool situated at the aft, is home to our dive taster sessions, where guests can kit up and plunge into this 4.35m pool with our diving instructor. This pool features glass windows in its side looking out into the function room, which creates for entertaining viewing and great photos.

The third pool is the forward pool, a refreshing plunge pool for those wanting to cool down.

A short walk from the forward pool, you'll find the compass deck, which on an upper viewing platform, gives a brilliant view of the span of the decking and sails. Its here that guests can join our yoga instructor for some early morning stretching, or join our voyage coordinator for some deck games - try your hand at rope quoits or curling.

Also on the compass deck, you'll find the bridge, where the Captain and Officers are often in close proximity. If you have a question about the ship or her sails, the crew would be happy to share their extensive knowledge of Golden Horizon. If you venture below the compass deck, back on the upper deck, you'll find the ships 4 suites.

Breakfast on-board

Breakfast is served in the Dining Room, our elegant central dining space. Start your day with sweet, buttery pastries perfectly paired with a morning coffee. Tuck into cold meats, cheese and juices; choose sizzling sausages and tomatoes from the hot food station; or order your favourite filling at the omelette station. Our à la carte menu offers cooked-to-order dishes to start your day in the right way. Don't miss the smoked salmon, crushed avocado and poached egg on sourdough bread, or fluffy pancakes and waffles. If you are an early or late riser, you'll also find a continental breakfast being served in the Piano Bar or Horizon Bar.

Leisurely lunches

Lunches are light, fresh and there's always the chance to taste the local flavours of the region you're sailing through. Head to the Dining Room to choose delicious dishes from an à la carte menu that changes daily.

Alternatively, head to the Horizon Bar & Grill for an alfresco lunch experience. We'll treat you to culinary surprises on the sun deck, and there's always the opportunity to order room service if you are staying in a Suite or Deluxe Balcony Cabin.

The daily dinner event

The culinary highlight each day is dinner in the Dining Room, our centrepiece restaurant. It's an elegant experience, without being too formal, and a great chance to chat with our officers and other guests about the day's adventures. Dinner is table service only and you can choose from international, local, vegetarian and vegan dishes, many taking inspiration from our 'eat well, be well' philosophy.

A more casual dinner is offered in the Horizon Bar; and guests staying in our Suites and Deluxe Balcony Staterooms can order from our 24-hour room service menu. If you are staying in one of our four Suites, you can also opt for the ultimate dinner in your room. Choose from the menu offered in the Dining Room and we will serve your dinner course-by-course in your room.

Span centuries as you go from the Gothic cathedral, which was built over 600 years ago, to the fantastically futuristic complex of museums and entertainment venues at Ciudad de las Artes y las Ciencias (the City of Arts and Sciences).

Port Vendres is just over the border in France. Sitting slightly off-the-beaten-track, a port which is well worth a visit for its seafood alone. Each day, fishing vessels enter this deep natural harbour and unload their daily catch, which ends up on the plates of the town's best restaurants. For the penultimate leg of the cruise, we'll head back south to Tarragona, a characterful port city that's home to a cluster of some of the most important Roman ruins in Spain, such as the amphitheatre and the 3rd-Century city walls.

Along the coast in Antibes, check out the superyachts moored in the harbour, see works by the supreme surrealist, Picasso, or browse the famous market.

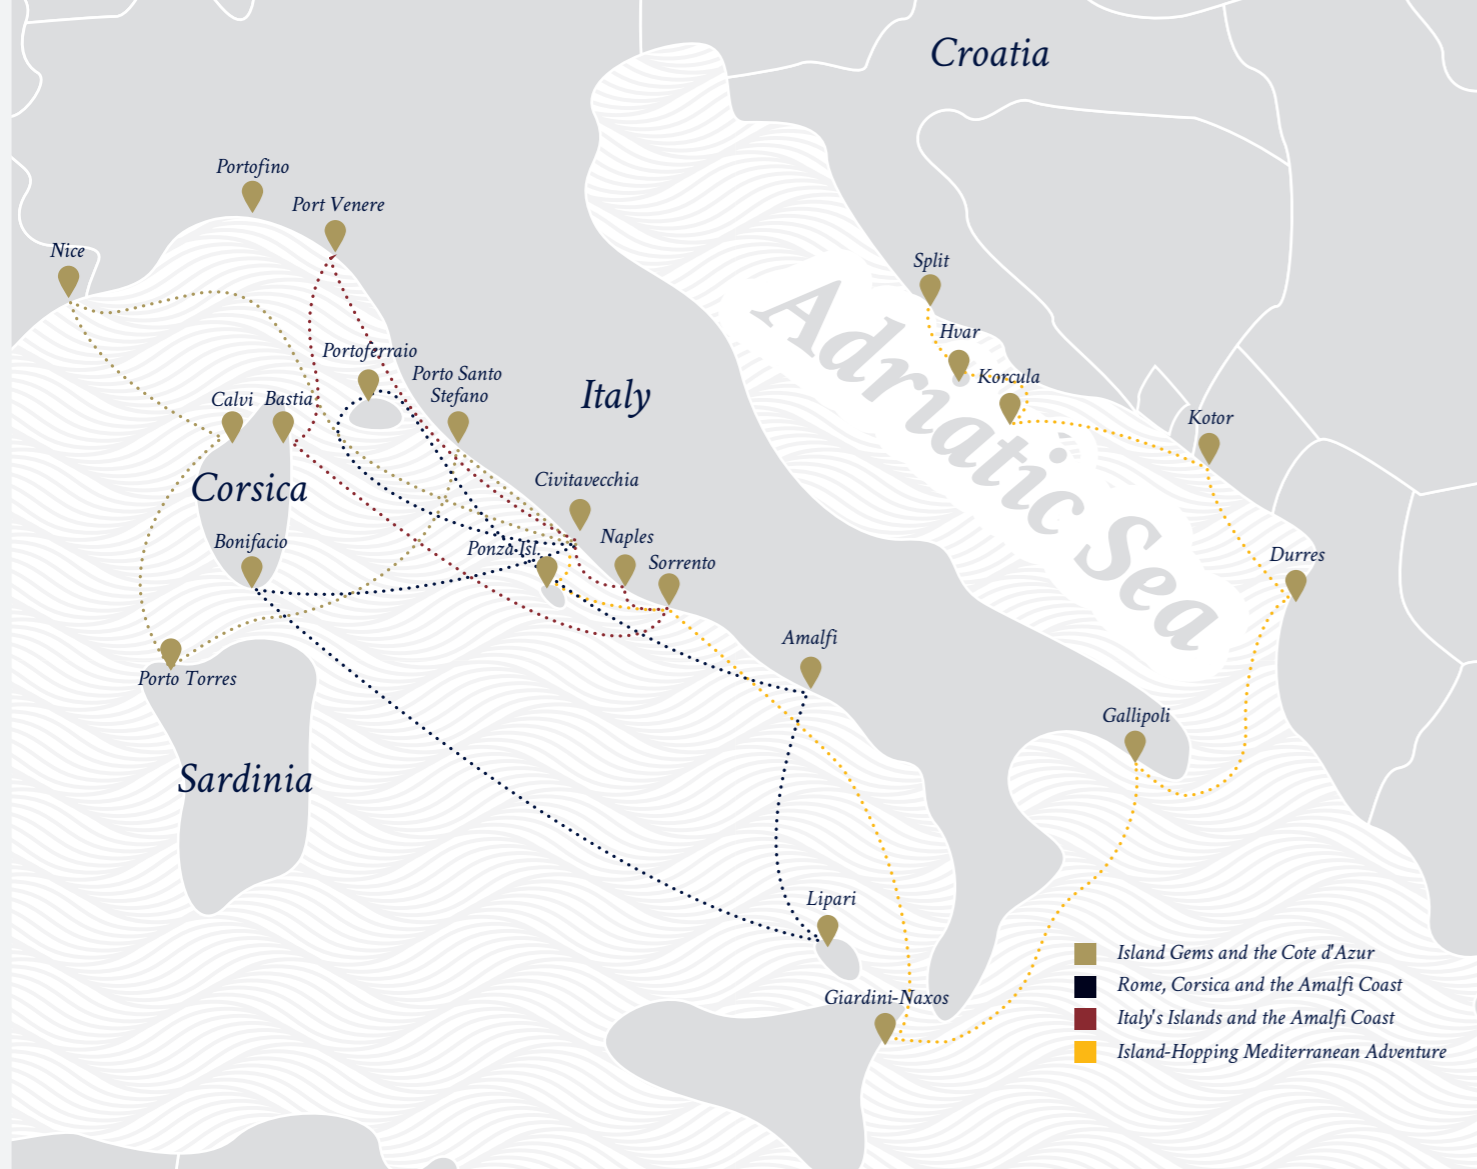

We'll visit pretty Portofino where vibrantly-painted houses hug the harbourfront and a maze of streets work their way up the hill; don't miss the best views of the village from the 15th-Century Castello Brown.

The maritime city of Livorno, with its network of Venetian canals and fantastic seafood restaurants, is our next port of call before we sail across the Tyrrhenian Sea to the Corsican harbour town of Porto Vecchio. This is another characterful settlement where you can get lost in a jumble of streets and piazzas. We'll finally reach Civitavecchia, the coastal gateway to Rome, Italy's much-loved capital.

The Italian Collection

Our Italian Collection offers up round-trip adventures from Civitavecchia, the closest port to Rome. From here, we can help you explore France, Corsica, Sardinia, mainland Italy and Albania, before venturing on to Croatia. We'll sail to cosmopolitan Nice, Corsica and Sardinia, pausing by sun-streaked coves. Turquoise-wrapped islands are almost overshadowed by show-stealing Amalfi, where every inch oozes wistful nostalgia. Ice cream-coloured homes in Porto Venere and Ischia give a flavour of famous Cinque Terre, while Sorrento unlocks the ashes of Pompeii. We'll then voyage to the Adriatic. See kaleidoscopic Ponza, a celebrity-kept secret, and explore the medieval town of Kotor in Montenegro. The final leg of this collection heads for Croatia, where guests can escape to Croatian vineyards for a taste of the local wine.

You'll board Golden Horizon in Civitavecchia, a small coastal city that serves as the main port for Rome (40 minutes away). It's from here we start the first leg of our journey to the French Riviera. Arrive in Nice, the Cote d'Azur capital that exudes elegance and class. Take your time as you wander along the seafront Promenade des Anglais and wide boulevards, gazing at the grand 19th-century mansions, and stroll past colourful fruit and veg at the Cours Saleya Market.

We'll visit two of the Mediterranean's most famous and sizable islands on this voyage: Corsica and Sardinia. Both have stunning beaches, historic towns, a jaw-dropping interior and an independent spirit.

Firstly we'll visit the Corsican town of Calvi, home of a unique 13th-century citadel, a charming old town and a glorious white-sand beach. The best view of the citadel is claimed by climbing up to Notre Dame de la Serra, which legend says brings lovers good fortune. We then head to Porto Torres, the starting point for explorations of the sandy coves and maritime defences of northwest Sardinia. This is where you'll find unearthed mosaics and crumbling columns at the Roman settlement of Turrus Libsonis. Back on mainland Italy, we'll visit Porto Santo Stefano, a lesser-visited Tuscan city that climbs up from the waterfront to the slopes of Mount Argentario and hides away many a cove below.

Cruise along the Amalfi Coast, deemed an outstanding example of Mediterranean landscape by UNESCO

Take a wander along the picturesque port of Azzuro from Portoferraio

From Civitavecchia, close to Rome, we'll set sail for Bonifacio, a natural and cultural wonderland of limestone sea cliffs and citadels on Corsica's south coast. The best ways to see this striking settlement are on a boat trip or on foot, getting lost in the maze of lanes.

We'll discover Lipari, the largest island in a volcanic archipelago off the northeast coast of Sicily. There will be time to explore the town's candy-coloured seafront and enjoy a meal in one of the upmarket restaurants before stepping back on board and cruising past Stromboli, an Aeolian Islands volcano that has been erupting for around 2500 years.

The next leg takes us northwards along the mainland coast to Amalfi, a small town that gives its name to the most famous stretch of Italy's coast. Stay put for lemon sorbet on the beach and wander through the cathedral's stunning Cloister of Paradise. Alternatively, take time to explore the region's gravity-defying coastal villages, coves and bays. Elba, another archipelago island, is our next port of call. Best known as the place Napoleon spent in exile, the island is a great place for archaeological explorations, hiking or some time-out on one of the wonderful beaches.

It's just a stone's throw from the more famous five towns that line the famed Cinque Terre coastline, yet is still wonderfully under the radar. The town itself is a joy to explore, but we also recommend taking to the water to see the region's beautiful caves and cliffs, or hitting the local trails on foot.

We'll swap Italian glamour for French flair as we sail across the Tyrrhenian Sea to busy Bastia, a historic port city on Corsica's northeast coast. Spend time down by the water in Terra Vecchia, up in the walled citadel, Terra Nova, or exploring the trails that criss-cross the surrounding sweet chestnut forests. Our first stop is the Italian port city of Trieste which occupies a thin strip of land between the Adriatic coast and Slovenia's border. We then sail to Italianate city of Rovinj with its striking church tower, and beautifully unspoilt Mali Lošinj, a hidden gem where the pure air is reputed to have healing properties.

Croatia and the Greek Islands

10 Aug - 19 Aug 2022  9 nights  From £2,299

Our eastern Mediterranean exploration pairs wonderful walled cities in Croatia with the Greek islands of Corfu, Sifnos and Hydra. You'll also have the chance to discover Athens, the heart of Ancient Greece.

Voyage Itinerary: 10 Aug - 19 Aug 2022

-  Day 1: Split, Croatia  Day 6: Corfu, Greece
-  Day 2: Korcula, Croatia  Day 7: Sailing
-  Day 3: Dubrovnik, Croatia  Day 8: Sifnos, Greece
-  Day 4: Kotor, Montenegro  Day 9: Hydra, Greece
-  Day 5: Sarande, Albania  Day 10: Piraeus, Greece

Leaving atmospheric Split and its Roman-era Diocletian's Palace behind, we'll sail down the Dalmatian Coast. Having explored the pine-forested island of Korcula, where Croatia's finest white wines are made, you'll get to admire Dubrovnik, whose ancient walls and Baroque buildings host many sophisticated restaurants. Less glitzy but equally handsome is Kotor, over the border in Montenegro, a medieval city wedged between sheer mountains and a blue bay, where café-covered squares and Venetian palaces abound. After Kotor, we set sail for Sarande, an Albanian town that sits on a horseshoe-shaped bay, edged by beaches and a promenade.

Now turning our attention to the Greek Islands, we begin with a classic. Despite its popularity, Corfu retains an idyll-like feel thanks to its sleepy villages, dreamy shores and tree-lined hills. Two quaint islands follow: pottery-making Sifnos is a vintage blend of whitewashed village and olive groves, while donkeys are the sole mode of transportation along marble-cobbled lanes on Hydra, which has long lured artists. From there we sail to Piraeus, close to Athens and all of its glories.

VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Visit the stunning city of Dubrovnik or escape to Koločep Island for a snorkelling adventure
- Explore the medieval streets of Kotor, and in Saranda, take a tour to the must see natural phenomenon, the Blue Eye
- Discover Hydra, a hidden paradise where the only way to explore is by foot, boat or donkey

The Greek Collection

We're ready to show you the very best of Greece and its islands, plus a little Turkey.

In Turkey, labyrinthine old towns complement noisy bazaars and you can find some of the most staggering Greek ruins outside of Greece.

- ≈* Day 2: Sailing
- ≈* Day 3: Kefalonia, Greece
- ≈* Day 4: Katakolon, Greece
- ≈* Day 5: Monemvasia, Greece

Explore the natural wonders of the Drogarati Caves and Lake Melissani, Kefalonia's largest cave lake

Explore Greece's renowned ruins on a visit to the ancient site of Olympia

Discover the scenic beauty and historic legacy of Epidaurus and Mycenae

Starting and finishing from Athens, where the old Acropolis citadel towers over Byzantine churches and pop-up warehouse bars, we sail for the largest Ionian island, Cephalonia. At the pretty port of Argostoli, where mandolin-playing musicians soundtrack streets with traditional kantades songs, there's the chance to go shopping, lounge on a blissful cove or tour inland vineyards and oak forests. Back on mainland Greece, Katakolon is a gateway to Olympia, where the first Ancient Olympic Games were held in 776 BC. Visit the old, ruined stadium and learn from guides about early events such as the boxing-like pancratium.

Often likened to Gibraltar, the tidal island of Monemvasia is a sheer slab of rock that hosts a Byzantine fort and a red-roofed village that can only be seen from the sea. After exploring, we'll move on to Milos, a volcanic Cycladic island blessed with brilliant beaches, strange rock formations and a litany of picture-perfect villages. No less photogenic is the mainland town of Nafplio, Greece's former capital and our penultimate stop, before returning to Athens' cruise port, Piraeus. Below Nafplio's towering castle, Venetian houses line narrow lanes as romantic tavernas serve freshly-grilled fish or mezze platters along the waterfront.

Greek Island Hopping

7 nights ~ From £1,799 Departure Dates: 26/08/22 ~ 16/09/22

From the white-washed villages of Santorini to the beaches and cobblestones of Kos, we'll discover the great variety on offer across six Greek islands. Spend time in glamorous Mykonos and don't miss the castle in Rhodes.

Voyage Itinerary:

- ~ Day 1: Piraeus, Greece
- ~ Day 2: Santorini, Greece
- ~ Day 3: Rhodes, Greece
- ~ Day 4: Kos, Greece
- ~ Day 5: Patmos, Greece

VOYAGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Hike to Santorini volcano for breath-taking views
- Explore one of the most famous villages in Greece - Oia
- See the magnificent remains of past civilisations at the Acropolis of Lindos and explore Delos, the mythological birthplace of Apollo

Leaving Athens' hip restaurants and Acropolis fortress in our wake, we'll sail to spectacular Santorini. White-washed villages like Oia spill dramatically down clifftops toward the cobalt sea, with hiking trails connecting to ancient thermal baths inland. Moving onto the less-visited Dodecanese archipelago, near Turkey's coast, we dock next at Rhodes. There's something for everyone here: beaches fringed by gin-clear water, wooded valleys to stroll and a cobbled old town rich in boutique shops. Nearby Kos has even finer shores, plus an abundance of crags and classic Corinthian columns, while Patmos ranks among the Christian world's most sacred sites thanks to its Cave of the Apocalypse - where St John of Patmos penned the Book of Revelation around 95 CE.

Pilgrims of a very different kind flock to Mykonos, back in the Cycladic Islands. Hedonistic and party-minded, it's a glamorous, seductive place with perfect people-watching opportunities - especially amid the labyrinthine, cubist streets of Mykonos Town. Far more rustic is uncrowded Paros, where fertile hills and rural villages tempt walkers, and the seas enable windsurfing and diving. If you're less activity-minded, marvel at the preserved seaside windmill in capital Parikia. After a full day on the island, we'll sail back to Piraeus.

- In Bodrum, wine tasting at fabulous vineyards, a traditional Turkish bath or a spot of scuba diving await is a hotspot for unique dive sites, so we'll take full advantage and open our marina for watersports, too.
- In Kusadasi, revel in the ancient history of Ephesus, an UNESCO World Heritage Site

When we reach Turkey, a change of pace in cosmopolitan Bodrum takes us to stunning beaches with sea-view restaurants for people-watching and yacht spotting. Over in Kusadasi, browse colourful boutiques, barter at spice-scented markets and take your pick of eight sun-soaked beaches. Our recommendation is a chance to visit the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Ephesus. Stroll down ancient streets and see the city's ruins, including the Library of Celsus, dating back to 117 AD. A day at sea cruising back from Kusadasi to Athens offers a final chance to soak up those mesmerising Aegean Sea vistas.

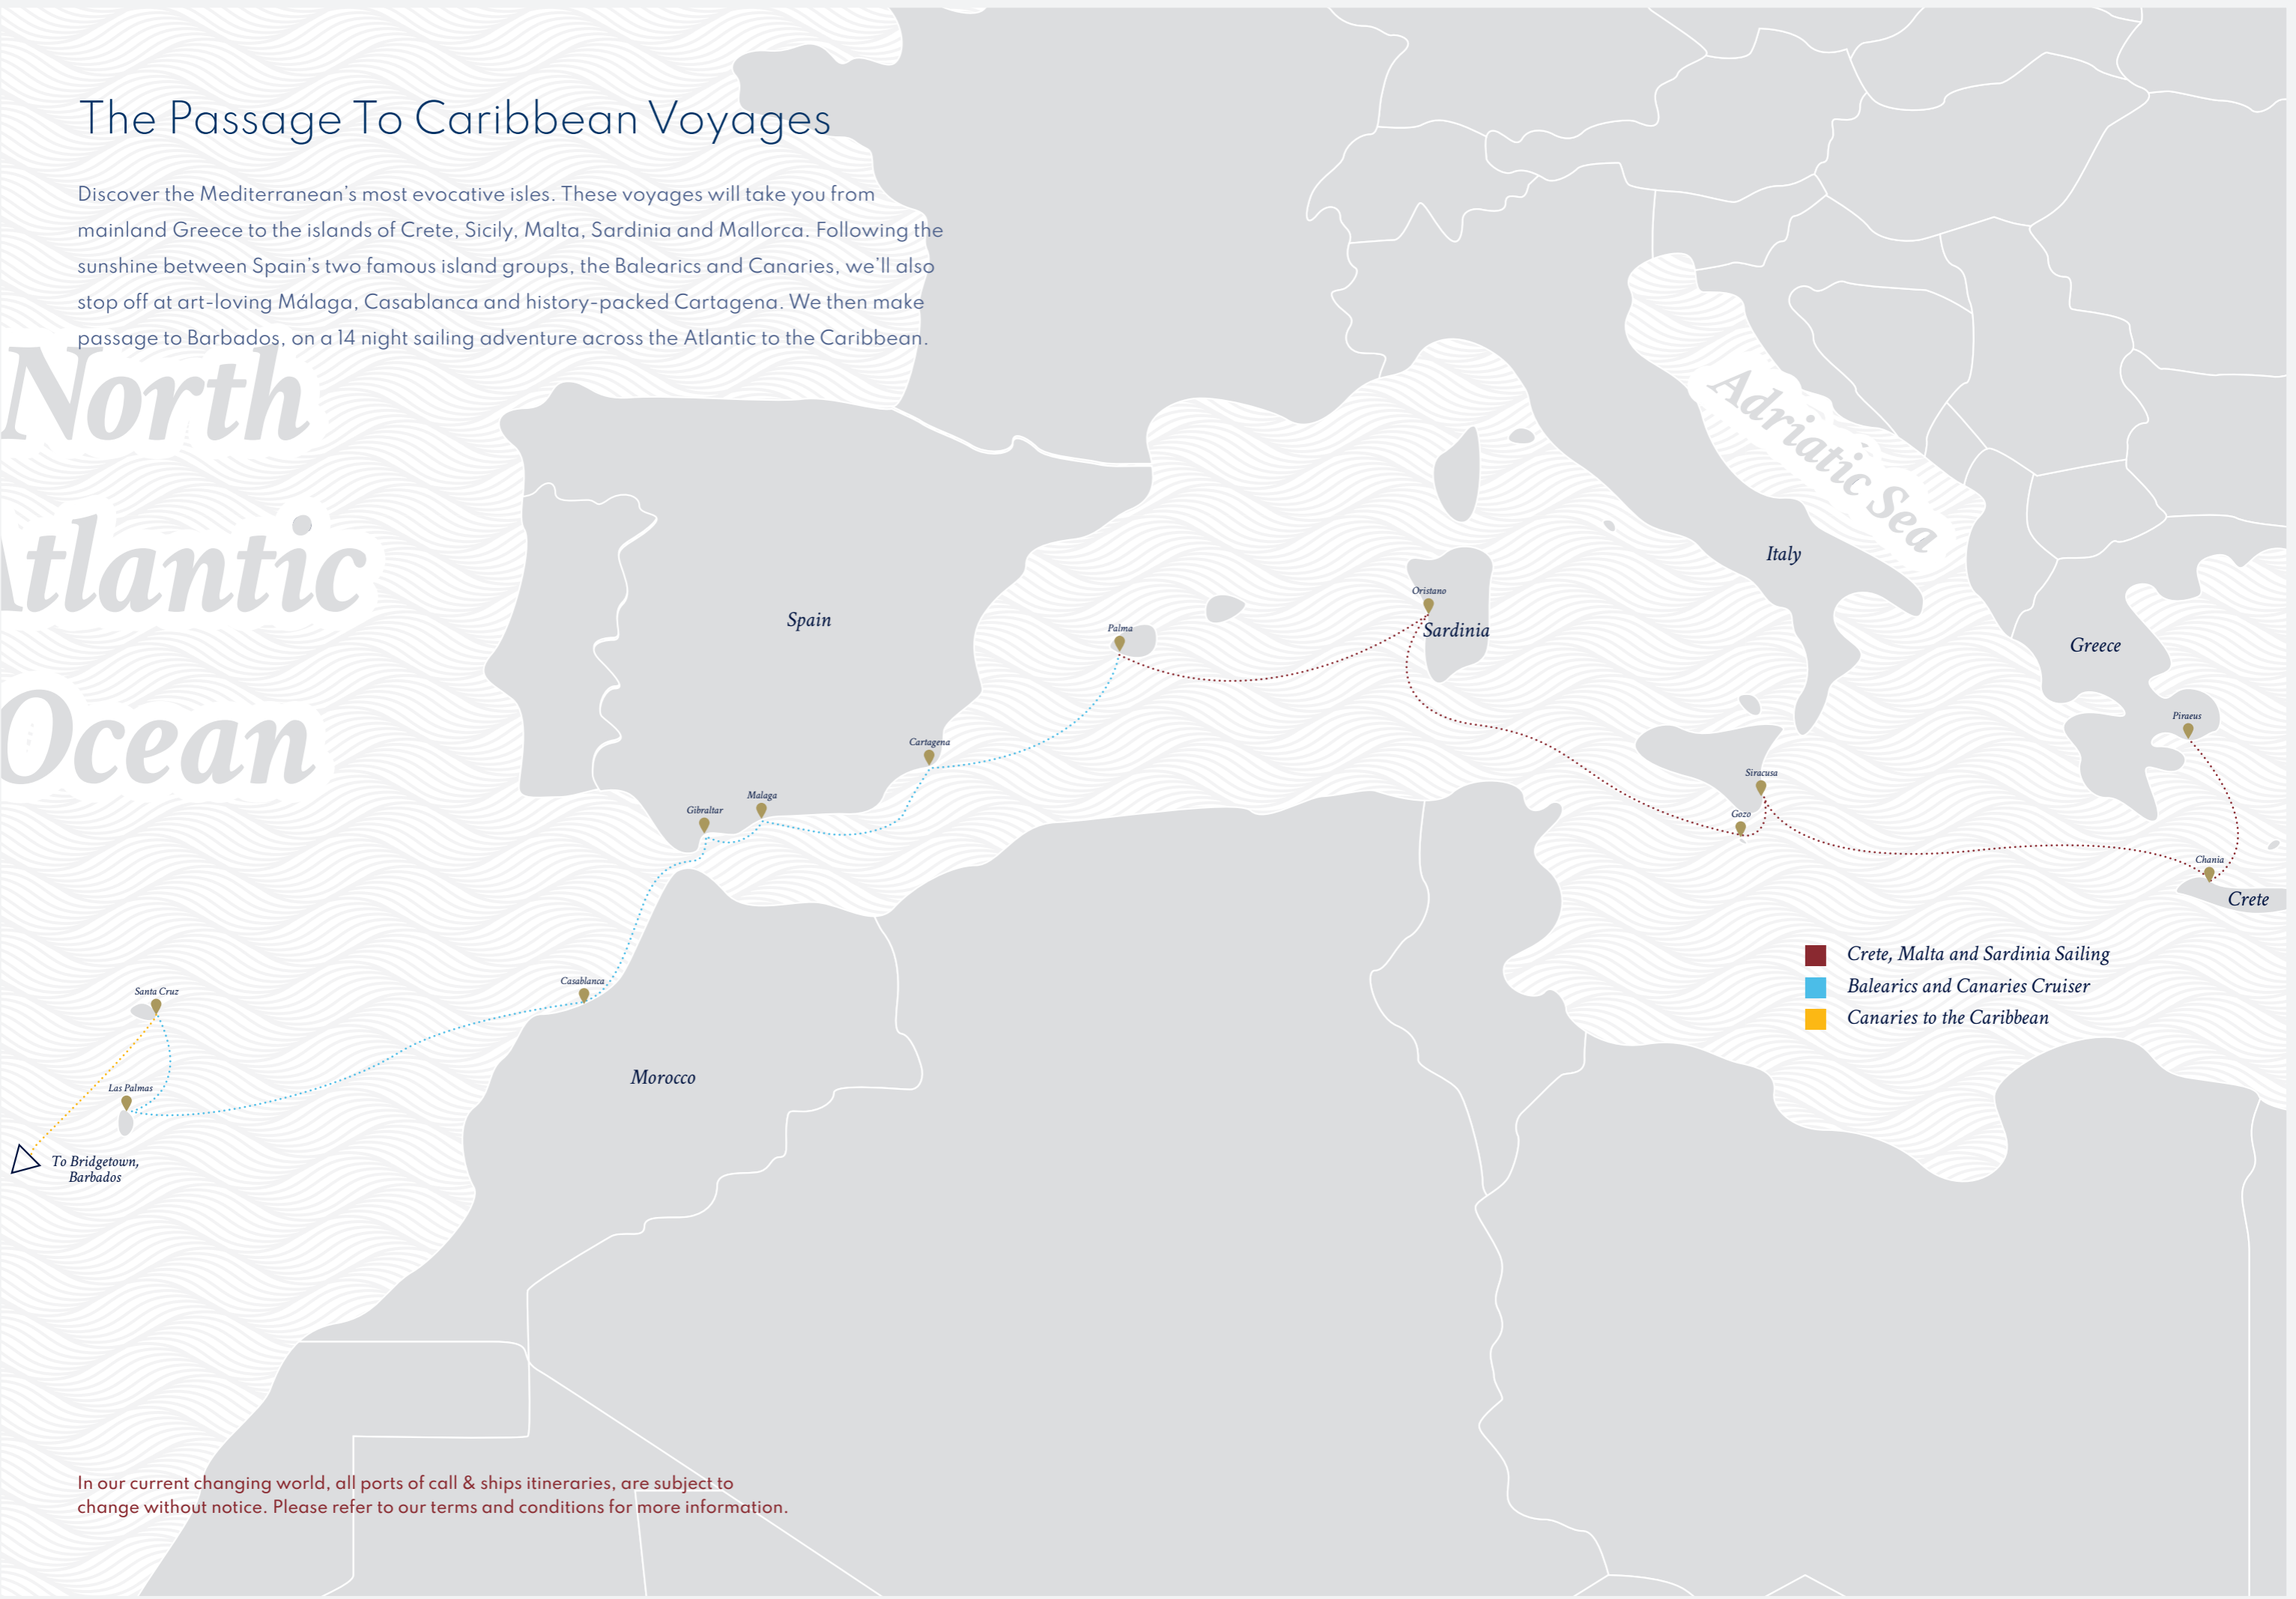

From Piraeus, close to Athens, we'll set sail for Naxos in the Cyclades, where beautifully rugged mountains peak at 1000-metre-high Mount Zeus and fertile fields tumble down the hillsides. You can stick to the key sights around harbourside Hora, with its web of winding cobblestone streets, Venetian mansions and Apano Kastro ('upper castle'). Alternatively, head inland to charming villages or make for the sandy stretch of southwest coast.

We'll venture off the beaten track to the Dodecanese and mythical Leros. We will be the first international ship to visit Leros, aside from the local yachts and vessels that dock here. This serene spot brims with historical monuments, so explore the medieval castle and stroll through age-old settlements. A short island-hop away, an authentic slice of Greece awaits: picture-perfect Kalymnos. Pastel-hued houses cling to the hillside and cobbled streets draped in bougainvillea are dotted with quaint café tables. The area

Embark on outdoor jeep adventures and discover beautiful scenery in Siracusa, Sicily

Saying goodbye to Athens and its iconic sights, we cross to Crete's atmospheric old port of Chania. Here, Venetian townhouses host inventive tavernas, while one shopping street is solely reserved for leatherware. That all said, picture-perfect beaches, white windmills and Samaria Gorge walks beckon close by should you like to explore further. A similar dilemma awaits in Sicily's beautiful east-coast hub of Syracuse: stay and explore one of the ancient world's key cities, including the magical island-quarter of Ortigia.

As we arrive in Malta, Valletta will prove seductive: the capital has a strong design scene, a fine-arts museum in MUZA and harbour-crossing cruises. Then again, Gozo's world-famous diving may prove irresistible, as might gigantic temples (of various vintages) and a 5000-year-old underground necropolis. Our next stop, Sardinia's capital Cagliari, is amazing to first behold: its domes and golden palazzi soar up from the sea below a castle. History fans might tour the area after visiting the extensive ruins of nearby Nora, a 3000-year-old cliff-top city. Alternatively, Italy's longest beach sprawls just east of town. Our voyage finishes in Mallorca's honey-stone centre Palma, where high-class art galleries, restaurants and studios pepper medieval streets below the mesmerising Cathedral de Mallorca.

Departing Mallorca, and the charming honey-stone streets of Palma, we'll sail for the Spanish mainland. Cartagena is best admired from the battlements of its castle and time is well spent roaming Roman ruins, museums and the astounding Old Cathedral of Cartagena.

Málaga has been rejuvenated in past decades and the city now has tapas and arts scenes to rival any in Spain – the latter including a multicoloured Pompidou outpost and an excellent museum devoted to local boy, Pablo Picasso. Sea-kayaking trips into caves are available nearby if you'd prefer some rural exploration.

British-owned Gibraltar, aka 'The Rock', has a familiar vibe, with red pillar boxes, fish-and-chip shops and Palladian architecture. You'll also have the chance to explore extensive war tunnels, botanic gardens and a macaque-patrolled nature reserve. We'll then move on to the Canary Islands, likely to still be sun-soaked this deep into autumn. From the main city Las Palmas, it's easy to explore Gran Canaria's lush north – pausing in pastel-shade towns and banana plantations before wowing at the Bandama Caldera, a magnificent volcanic crater. - ~ Day 15: Bridgetown, Barbados

We'll leave the buzz of Santa Cruz and set sail for easy-breezy Barbados. The oceanscapes never cease to wow. Enjoy the sense of momentum and drama as the rigging strains and the sails drive the ship forward whilst, at the same moment, finding time for a period of quiet solitude and peace in your own secluded corner of our expansive decks.

During your time below deck, use the ship as a wellbeing destination – taking advantage of the luxurious facilities and activities on offer. The ambience on board is relaxed, casual, elegant and without unnecessary formality. Our Dive Pool is an ideal way to learn the ropes of scuba diving whilst you are on board Golden Horizon. A great opportunity to achieve what has perhaps been a life long ambition – measure up for your wetsuit and join our Dive Master for a 1 hour diving taster session in our 4.35 metre dive pool onboard. Alternatively join in a game of Rope Quoits or try your hand at Curling on the Compass Deck.

Relax as you enjoy dinner in the elegant dining room, listening to our pianist and singer; or head up on deck for a more casual meal watching the sunset, before ending perfect days at Debeljak's, our premium onboard bar serving some of the world's finest gins and whisky.

Terms & Conditions

These Booking Terms and Conditions, together with our Privacy Policy, Guest behaviour, safety and Security Policy and where your voyage is booked via our website, our Website Terms of Use, together with any other written information we brought to your attention before we confirmed your booking, form the basis of your contract, which is a contract of carriage, with us. In these Booking Conditions references to "you" and "your" include the first named person on the booking and all persons on whose behalf a booking is made or any other person to whom a booking is added or transferred and "we", "us" and "our" means Tradewind Voyages UK Limited, a company registered in England and Wales with company number 12450468, of registered office 22 - 26 High Street, Hadleigh, Suffolk IP7 5AP.

Please read these Booking Terms and Conditions carefully as they set out our respective rights and obligations.

By making a booking, the first named person on the booking agrees on behalf of all persons detailed on the booking that:

1. he/she has read these Booking Terms and Conditions and has the authority to and does agree to be bound by them;
2. he/she consents to our use of personal data in accordance with our Privacy Policy and is authorised on behalf of all persons named on the booking to disclose their personal details to us, including, where applicable, special categories of data (such as information on health conditions or disabilities and dietary requirements);
3. he/she is over 18 years of age and where placing an order for services with age restrictions declares that he/she and all members of the party are of the appropriate age to purchase those services;
4. he/she accepts financial responsibility for payment of the booking on behalf of all persons detailed on the booking.

If you book a voyage in conjunction with other services (such as flights, on-shore accommodation and/or ground transfers) which are arranged or provided by a travel agent or tour operator with whom you book, your contract for the full holiday including the voyage and all such other services and arrangements will be with your travel agent or tour operator and not with us. The travel agent's or tour operator's own booking conditions will apply to your contract. Please ensure you obtain a copy of these before or at the time you book. We do not have any liability to you in these circumstances.

1.Booking & Paying For Your Voyage

A booking is made with us when you pay us a deposit equal to 15% (fifteen per cent) of the full cost of your voyage (or full payment if you are booking within 90 (ninety) days of the Embarkation Date) and we issue you with a booking confirmation. We reserve the right to return your deposit and decline to issue a booking confirmation at our absolute discretion. A binding contract will come into existence between you and us as soon as we have issued you with a booking confirmation which will confirm the details of your booking and will be sent to you or, where you have booked through a travel agent, your travel agent. Upon receipt, if you believe that any details on the booking confirmation or any other document are wrong you must advise us immediately as changes cannot be made later and it may harm your rights if we are not notified of any inaccuracies in any document within 10 (ten) days of our sending it out.

The balance of the cost of your voyage (including any surcharge, if applicable) is due not less than 90 days prior to the scheduled Embarkation Date. If we do not receive this balance in full and on time, we reserve the right to treat your booking as cancelled by you in which case we will retain your deposit.

2.Information

The fare includes full board, accommodation, entertainment on board the vessel, basic wifi-access, use of gym and marina and selected soft drinks with lunch & dinner in the main restaurant. Certain cabin categories include further items/services. Please see our website for further details. All elements are subject to availability at the time of booking. From time to time we may host conventions, conferences or seminars, which will not affect the overall normal day-to-day operation of the vessel, however there may be occasions when certain facilities are unavailable to you whilst these events take place.

We cannot guarantee that our vessel(s) will call at every advertised port or follow every part of the itinerary. Itineraries may change from time to time, both before and after the Embarkation Date and we reserve the right to omit, add and/or substitute any ports, call at additional ports, vary the order of call at ports, change the time of arrival at, departure from or time spent at any port of call, deviate from the advertised itinerary in any way or substitute another vessel.

We aim to issue you with an Information Pack two (2) weeks prior to your Embarkation Date, either by email or to the address with which we have been provided. This Pack will include the details of your arrangements such as: the date and time the vessel departs the port of embarkation; the latest ports of call on the vessel's itinerary and timings; all necessary contact details; on board services, restaurants (please see Special Requests for any dietary requirements); along with any other information that we believe to be helpful for the enjoyment of your voyage. You should check all tickets and information in the Pack very carefully immediately on receipt to ensure they contain the correct transport times. If any embarkation or disembarkation times change after tickets have been dispatched we will contact you as soon as we can to let you know.

3.Accuracy & Shore Excursions

We endeavour to ensure that all the information and prices both on our website and in any advertising material including any brochures are accurate, however occasionally changes and errors occur and we reserve the right to correct prices and other details in such circumstances. You must check the current price and all other details relating to the arrangements that you wish to book before you make your booking.

Our descriptions may refer to activities or tours in the ports and/or shore excursions. Unless you booked an activity, tour and/or shore excursion with us where we act as principal and as part of your voyage booking, we are not responsible for the provision of such activity, tour or shore excursion or for anything that happens during the course of its provision by the operator as they are not operated or supervised by us; they do not form part of your contract with us, even where you may choose to book or pay for whilst you are on the ship.

4.Insurance

Adequate travel insurance cover is mandatory to sail with Tradewind Voyages. Make sure your insurance provides full cover for a cruise holiday, the full length of your trip and all of the destinations you are covering. Ensure that your policy includes cover for travel, cancellation and curtailment. You must declare any pre-existing medical conditions and read each policy thoroughly to make sure you have the cover you need. When travelling with us, your insurance must include a combined medical and repatriation cover of £2million minimum that includes emergency evacuations and medical expenses related to Covid-19.

If you travel without adequate insurance cover, we will not be liable for any losses howsoever arising, in respect of which insurance cover would otherwise have been available.

5.Pricing

We reserve the right to amend the price of unsold voyages at any time and to correct errors in the prices of confirmed voyages.

We also reserve the right to increase the price of confirmed voyages solely to allow for increases which are a direct consequence of changes in:

- (i) the price of the carriage of passengers resulting from the cost of fuel or other power sources;
- (ii) the level of taxes or fees chargeable for services applicable to the voyage imposed by third parties not directly involved in the performance of the voyage, including tourist taxes, landing taxes or embarkation or disembarkation fees at ports; and
- (iii) the exchange rates relevant to the package.

Such variations could include but are not limited to cost changes which are part of our contracts with ship operators and any other service providers.

You will be charged for the amount of any increase in accordance with this condition. However, if this means that you have to pay an increase of more than 8% (eight per cent) of the price of your confirmed voyage (excluding any amendment charges and/or additional services or third party onward travel arrangements), you will have the option of accepting a change to another voyage if we are able to offer one (if this is of lower price you will be refunded the difference in price), or cancelling and receiving a full refund of all monies paid to us, except for any amendment charges and/or additional services or travel arrangements. Should you decide to cancel for this reason, you must exercise your right to do so within seven (7) days from your balance due date.

Should the price of your voyage go down due to the changes mentioned above, then any refund due will be paid to you less an administrative fee of £25.00 per person. However, please note that travel arrangements of which the voyage is comprised are not always purchased in local currency and some apparent changes have no impact on the price of your travel due to contractual and other protection in place.

There will be no change made to the price of your confirmed voyage within 30 (thirty) days of your Embarkation Date nor will refunds be paid during this period.

6.Cutting your arrangements short

If you are forced to return home early, we cannot refund the cost of any travel arrangements you have not used. If you cut short your holiday and return home early in circumstances where you have no reasonable cause for complaint about the standard of services provided, we will not offer you any refund for that part of your voyage not completed, or be liable for any associated costs you may incur. Depending on the circumstances, your travel insurance may offer cover for curtailment and we suggest that any claim is made directly with them.

7.If You Change Your Booking & Transfers of Bookings

7A. Change to Booking

If you wish to change any part of your booking after our booking confirmation and invoice have been issued, you must inform us in writing as soon as possible by emailing amendments@tradewindvoyages.com. This should be done by the first named person on the booking. Your request to make a change to a booking will only be effective from the date on which we receive it. Whilst we will do our best to assist, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to meet your requested change, where we can meet a request, all changes will be subject to payment of an administration fee of at least £50 per person per change, as well as any costs and charges incurred by us and/or incurred or imposed by any of our suppliers in making this change. You should be aware that these costs could increase the nearer to the Embarkation Date that changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. Where we are unable to assist you and you do not wish to proceed with the original booking we will treat this as a cancellation by you. A cancellation fee may be payable in accordance with condition 8.

7B. Transfer of Booking

If you or any member of your party is prevented from travelling, that person(s) may transfer their place to someone else, subject to the following conditions:

- (1) that person is introduced by you and satisfies all the conditions

- applicable to the voyage;
- (2) we are notified not less than seven (7) days before the Embarkation Date;
- (3) you pay any outstanding balance payment, an amendment fee of £50 per person transferring, as well as any additional fees, charges or other costs arising from the transfer; and
- (4) the transferee agrees to these Booking Terms & Conditions and all other terms of the contract between us.

You and the transferee will remain jointly and severally liable for payment of all sums. If you are unable to find a replacement, cancellation charges as set out in condition 8 will apply in order to cover our estimated costs. Otherwise, no refunds will be given for passengers not travelling or for unused services.

Important Note: Certain arrangements may not be amended or transferred after they have been confirmed and any alteration could incur a cancellation charge of up to 100% of that part of the arrangements.

8.If You Cancel Your Booking Before the Embarkation Date

If you or any other member of your party decides to cancel your confirmed booking you must notify us by emailing us at amendments@tradewindvoyages.com. This should be done by the first named person on the booking. Your notice of cancellation will only take effect from the date on which we receive it. Should one or more member of your party cancel, it may increase the price per person of those still travelling and you will be liable to pay this increase. If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

Since we incur costs in cancelling your arrangements, you will have to pay the cancellation charges as follows:

Period Before the Embarkation Date in which You Notify Us	Cancellation Charge (% of the full cost of your voyage)
90 days or more	Deposit only
60 - 89 days	30 %
45 - 59 days	50 %
30 - 44 days	75%
Less than 30 days	100%

Please note that any amendments charges are not refundable in any circumstances.

Important Note: Certain arrangements may not be amended after they have been confirmed and any cancellation could incur a cancellation charge of up to 100% of that part of the arrangements in addition to the charge above.

Where possible, we will deduct the Cancellation Charge(s) from any monies you have already paid to us.

Cancellation by You due to Unavoidable & Extraordinary Circumstances:

You have the right to cancel your booking before the Embarkation Date without paying a cancellation charge in the event of "unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances" occurring at the relevant part of your itinerary (or its immediate vicinity) and significantly affecting the performance of the voyage. This should be done by the first named person on the booking. Your notice of cancellation of a booking will only take effect when it is received by us as outlined above.

In these circumstances, we will provide you with a full refund of the monies you have paid but we will not be liable to pay you any additional compensation. Please note that your right to cancel in these circumstances will only apply where the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development office advises against travel to your destination or its immediate vicinity.

For the purposes of this condition, "unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances" means warfare, acts of terrorism, significant risks to human health such as the outbreak of serious disease at the travel destination or natural disasters such as floods, earthquakes or weather conditions which make it impossible to travel safely to the travel destination.

This condition 8 outlines the rights you have if you wish to cancel your booking. Please note that there is no automatic statutory right of cancellation under the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 (Directive 2011/83/EU).

9.If We Change or Cancel

As we plan your arrangements many months in advance we may occasionally have to make changes or cancel your booking and we reserve the right to do so at any time. There may be a requirement to carry out maintenance or construction works during your voyage. Where the works are likely to seriously impair your holiday, we will notify you as soon as possible.

9A. Changes to Your Booking

If we make a minor change to your arrangements, we will make reasonable efforts to inform you, as soon as possible if there is time before your Embarkation Date but we will have no liability to you. Examples of minor changes include: a change from one port of call to another; a change from one day's port of call to one day's sailing; a change in timings for any port of call (but the vessel still calls at all confirmed ports); a longer waiting time in a port; a change of a sailing route or change in order of ports that are visited; a change of the overall length of your arrangements by 12 (twelve) hours or less); variations to on-board facilities.

Occasionally we may have to make a significant change to your voyage. An example of a significant change would be a change from three days' port of calls to three days' sailing.

9B. Cancellation of Your Booking

We will not cancel your voyage less than six (6) weeks before the Embarkation Date, except for where it is due to Events Beyond our Control (see condition 10), failure by you to pay your final balance or the voyage not achieving its minimum number of guests. Our minimum number of travellers for any voyage is 75% (seventy five percent) of the permitted lower berth capacity. Where we do not reach this minimum number within 20 (twenty) days of the Embarkation Date, we reserve the right to cancel the voyage and refund you in full

If we have to make a significant change or cancel, we will tell you as soon as possible and if there is time to do so before your Embarkation Date, we will offer you the choice of:

- (i) accepting the changed arrangements; or
- (ii) having a refund of all monies paid (excluding amendment fees); or
- (iii) if available and where we offer one, accepting an offer of an alternative voyage (we will refund any price difference if the alternative is of a lower value).

You must notify us of your choice within seven (7) days of our offer. This should be done by the first named person on the booking. If we do not hear from you within seven (7) days, we will contact you again to request notification of your choice. If you fail to respond again, we will assume that you have chosen to accept the alternative booking arrangements.

Compensation

In addition to a full refund of all monies paid by you, we will pay you any appropriate compensation in the following circumstances:

- (a) If, where we make a significant change, you do not accept the changed arrangements and cancel your booking; or
- (b) If we cancel your voyage and no alternative arrangements are available and/or we do not offer one.

The compensation that we offer does not exclude you from claiming more if you are entitled to do so.

Important Note: we will not pay you compensation where:

- (a) we make a minor change;
- (b) we make a significant change or cancel the arrangements more than 42 days (6 weeks) before the Embarkation Date;
- (c) we make a significant change and you accept those changed arrangements or an offer of alternative arrangements;
- (d) we have to cancel your voyage as a result of your failure to make full payment on time;
- (e) the change/ cancellation by us arises out of alterations to the booking requested by you; or
- (f) we are forced to cancel or change your arrangements due to Events Beyond our Control (see condition 10).

If we become unable to provide a significant proportion of the voyage arrangements that you have booked with us after you have departed, we will, if possible, make alternative arrangements for you at no extra charge and where those alternative arrangements are in our view of a lower standard, provide you with an appropriate price reduction.

10.Events Beyond our Control

Except where otherwise expressly stated in these Booking Terms and Conditions we will not be liable or pay you compensation if our contractual obligations to you are affected by Events Beyond our Control. For the purposes of these Booking Terms and Conditions, Events Beyond our Control means any event beyond our or the supplier of the service in question, the consequences of which could not have been avoided even if all reasonable measures had been taken. Examples include war or threat of war, and acts of terrorism (and threat thereof), civil strife, riots, civil unrest, significant risks to human health such as the outbreak of serious disease at the travel destination, epidemics, pandemics or natural disasters such as floods, earthquakes or weather conditions which make it impossible to travel safely to the travel destination or remain at the travel destination, mechanical difficulties, the act of any government (national or local), or other national or local authority including port or river authorities, lock closure, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, chemical or biological disaster, unavoidable technical problems with transport and all similar events outside our or the supplier(s) in question's control.

Brexit Implications: please note that certain travel arrangements may be affected as a result of the United Kingdom's decision to leave the European Union. This could include an unavailability of access to certain ports and airports etc. Please rest assured that this is something we will continue to monitor and will advise our customers as soon as possible if we become aware of any confirmed bookings which will be affected. However, since this is something which is completely unprecedented and outside our control, we would treat any such changes as Events Beyond our Control, and whilst we will endeavour to provide suitable alternative arrangements or refunds where possible, we will not be liable to pay you any compensation.

11.Special Requests

The cabin we allocate will be suitable for the number of guests occupying it. Any special requests must be advised to us at the time of booking e.g. the carrying of any special medical equipment, diet, food intolerances, allergies, requirements and preferences. You should then confirm these requests in writing. Whilst every effort will be made by us to try to arrange any reasonable special requests, we cannot guarantee that they will be fulfilled. The fact that a special request has been noted on the confirmation invoice or any other documentation or that it has been passed on to the supplier is not confirmation that the request will be met. Should your needs change after booking or you become aware that you need assistance you must notify us immediately and we will make reasonable efforts to assist you at that time. Failure to meet any special request will not be a breach of contract on our part. We do not accept bookings that are conditional upon any special request being met.

12.Disabilities and Medical Requirements

Please note that Golden Horizon does not have elevators or ramps and access to land is often via the ship's launches. In addition, we will not be able to accommodate wheelchairs or other mobility aids on the ship.

You must ensure that you are medically and physically fit for travel, and that such travelling will not endanger yourself or anyone else. If any member of your party is affected by any condition (medical or otherwise) that might affect their, or any other guests' enjoyment of the voyage, you must advise us about this before the time of booking so that we can try to advise you as to the suitability of your chosen arrangements and/or making the booking. You must also promptly advise us if any medical condition or disability which may affect any member of your party's voyage which develops after the booking has been confirmed. We may require you to produce a doctor's certificate certifying that such member of your party is fit to participate. Acting reasonably, if we are unable to properly accommodate the needs of the person(s) concerned, we will not confirm your booking or if you did not give us full details at the time of booking, we will cancel it and impose applicable cancellation charges when we become aware of these details.

Those guests who are aged 75 or over at the date of disembarkation will need to provide a Doctor's letter or certificate confirming they are medically and physically fit to travel and can be accommodated safely on Golden Horizon. This letter or certificate will need to be presented on the day of embarkation

We cannot accept guests who will enter or exceed their 24th week of pregnancy at any time during the voyage.

To ensure a healthy sailing, we may request guests complete a short questionnaire at the port of embarkation to confirm if they are suffering from or showing symptoms of gastrointestinal or coronavirus type illness or other illnesses that spread easily from one person to another. We have a medical facility on board our vessel and strongly recommend you visit the facility if you are feeling unwell. Where necessary, if your condition is deemed contagious, we may have to confine you to your cabin to avoid the spread of your condition. Non-compliance with the instructions of the medical personnel is contrary to our Guest Behaviour, Safety & Security Policy and could lead to your removal from the vessel at the next port of call in which case we will have no further liability to you or to any member of your party. If you have failed to give proper notice of any assistance or needs you require then in accordance with Regulation EU 1177/2010 we reserve the right to refuse to allow you to travel. This includes a refusal in order to meet safety requirements established by international, union or national law or those competent authorities, or where the design of the vessel or port infrastructure makes it impossible to carry out the embarkation, disembarkation or carriage of you or a member of your party in a safe or operationally feasible manner.

13.Check-in and Luggage

Check-in details will be sent to you with your final documents, before the Embarkation Date. Any valuable and important items should be carried by hand and not packed in your luggage, and once onboard, should not be left unsecured in your cabin or elsewhere. We shall not be liable for any loss or damage to any valuables. If you discover any loss or damage when onboard then you must notify Guest Services immediately. Failure to so notify immediately may affect our ability to investigate the loss or damage. You must also give us details of the relevant insurance coverage. Our luggage allowance is restricted by cabin space and weigh (23kg in a maximum of 2 pieces per person), all luggage must be stored in your cabin. All luggage must be labelled with your name, vessel name, cabin number and sailing date. You must not pack in any luggage or bring onboard any dangerous or illegal item which include, but are not limited to those items specified in our Guest Behaviour, Safety & Security Policy. We may also specify other inappropriate items which you must not bring with you. If we or the master of the vessel have reason to believe that any cabin may contain anything which should not have been brought onboard, we or an authorized officer have the right to search the cabin and seize any such items and may also contact law enforcement.

14.Complaints

We make every effort to ensure that your arrangements run smoothly but if you do have a problem during your voyage, please inform Guest Services immediately who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please ensure that you contact guestservices@tradewindvoyages.com.

If you booked through a travel agent or tour operator, please contact them.

If the problem cannot be resolved and you wish to complain further, you must send formal written notice of your complaint to us at our registered office, ideally within 30 days of the end of your voyage, giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you. Failure to follow the procedure set out in this condition may affect ours and the applicable supplier's ability to investigate your complaint, and will affect your rights under this contract.

You can access the European Commission Online Dispute Resolution (ODR) platform at <http://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr/>. This ODR platform is a means of registering your complaint with us; it will not determine how your complaint should be resolved. Please Note: the ODR platform is unlikely to be available for use by UK consumers at such a point that the UK's transition period, as part of its withdrawal as a member of the European Union, comes to an end.

15.Your Behaviour

All guests are expected to conduct themselves in an orderly and acceptable manner and not to disrupt the enjoyment of others. It is a condition of boarding and remaining on board our vessel(s) that all guests throughout their stay comply with our Guest Behaviour, Safety & Security Policy.

On the voyage it is necessary that you ensure that all members of your party abide by the authority of our representatives and the vessel's master. If in our opinion or in the opinion of any voyage staff member or any other person in authority, your behaviour or that of any member of your party is causing or is likely to cause distress, danger or annoyance to any other guests or any third party, or damage to property, or to cause a delay or diversion to transportation, we reserve the right, without prior notice, to refuse to allow you to travel on our vessel and to terminate your booking with us immediately. You may then be left at any port or place at which the vessel calls without us incurring any liability. We will have no further obligations to you and/or your party. No refunds for lost arrangements will be made and we will not pay any expenses or costs incurred as a result of termination. You and/or the members of your party may also be required to pay for loss and/or damage caused by their actions and we will hold you and each member of your party jointly and individually liable for any damage or losses caused by any member of your party. Full payment for any such damage or losses must be paid directly to the chief purser or other supplier prior to the Disembarkation Date.

If you or any member of your party fails to make payment, you will be responsible for meeting any claims (including legal costs) subsequently made against us as a result of the actions of any member of your party together with all costs we incur in pursuing any claim against you or any member of your party.

16. Our Responsibilities

- (1) We will accept responsibility for the arrangements we agree to provide or arrange for you as an "organiser" under the Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangements Regulations 2018, as set out below and as such, we are responsible for the proper provision of all travel services included in the voyage package, as set out in our confirmation invoice. Subject to these Booking Terms and Conditions, if we or our suppliers negligently perform or arrange those services and we don't remedy or resolve your complaint within a reasonable period of time, and this has affected the enjoyment of the voyage you may be entitled to an appropriate price reduction or compensation or both. You must inform us without undue delay of any failure to perform or improper performance of the travel services included in the voyage. The level of any such price reduction or compensation will be calculated taking into consideration all relevant factors such as but not limited to following the complaints procedure as described in these Booking Terms and Conditions and the extent to which ours or our employees' or suppliers' negligence affected the overall enjoyment of the voyage. Please note that it is your responsibility to show that we or our supplier(s) have been negligent if you wish to make a claim against us.
- (2) We will not be responsible or pay compensation for any injury, illness, death, loss, damage, expense, cost or other claim of any description if it results from:
 - (a) the acts and/or omissions of the person affected; or
 - (b) the acts and/or omissions of a third party unconnected with the provision of the services contracted for and which were unforeseeable or unavoidable; or
 - (c) Events Beyond our Control (as defined in condition 10).
- (3) We limit the amount of compensation we may have to pay if we are found liable under this condition:
 - (a) Loss of and/or damage to any luggage or personal possessions and money: the maximum amount we will have to pay you in respect of these claims is under the Athens Convention 1974 or Regulation EU No 392/2009.

17. Your Protection

Insolvency protection

We provide financial protection for packages that we sell as an "organiser" under the Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangements Regulations 2018. We provide this by making payment into a trust account administered by independent trustees, Protected Trust Services - protectedtrustservices.com/ Money is not released from that account until after you have travelled. If you book arrangements other than a package with us; or book a voyage through another company with flights or other travel services supplied by them, your monies will not be financially protected via this trust but may be protected by that other company's financial protection arrangements. Please ask us for further details.

18. Passport, Visa and Immigration Requirements & Health Formalities

It is your responsibility to check and fulfill the passport, visa, health and immigration requirements applicable for all ports of call on the vessel's itinerary. We can only provide general information about this. You must check requirements for your own specific circumstances with the relevant Embassies and/or Consulates and your own doctor as applicable. Requirements do change and you must check the up to date position in good time before your Embarkation Date.

Most countries now require passports to be valid for at least 6 months after the Disembarkation Date. If your passport is in its final year, you should check with the Embassy of the countries you are visiting. For further information contact the Passport Office on 0870 5210410 or visit <https://www.gov.uk/browse/citizenship/passports>.

Up to date travel advice can be obtained from the Foreign Commonwealth and Development office, visit <https://www.gov.uk/travelaware>

Tradewind Voyages recommend The Travel Visa Company to provide information and assist with any necessary travel visa requirements. Their website can be accessed at www.thetravelvisacompany.co.uk/tradewindvoyages. You can apply for most destinations online, check your requirements or make an enquiry. If you are a UK Passport holder you can also check your entry requirements with the FCO (Foreign Commonwealth and Development office).

Non British passport holders, including other EU nationals, should obtain up to date advice on passport and visa requirements from the Embassy, High Commission or Consulate of each of the countries through which you are travelling.

At check-in you must present a valid passport and any visa, entry or exit permit, or other documentation required by any port on the vessel's itinerary. We do not accept any responsibility if you cannot travel, or incur any other loss because you have not complied with any passport, visa, immigration requirements or health formalities. You agree to reimburse us in relation to any fines or other losses which we incur as a result of your failure to comply with any passport, visa, immigration requirements or health formalities.
